

Material Incorporated by Reference in Pipelines Safe Work Instrument

In accordance with clause 2 of Schedule 2 of the Legislation Act 2019, I, Phil Parkes, Chief Executive, WorkSafe New Zealand, give notice that the material incorporated by reference into the Health and Safety in Employment (Pipelines—Design, Construction, Operation, Maintenance, Suspension, and Abandonment Requirements) Safe Work Instrument 2023 is publicly available for purchase at the internet addresses indicated in the Table below:

Table

Standard	Title	Place of purchase
AS 2885.0-2018, Part 0	General requirements	www.standards.org.au
AS/NZS 2885.1-2018, Part 1	Design and Construction	www.standards.govt.nz
AS/NZS 2885.2-2020, Part 2	Welding	www.standards.govt.nz
AS 2885.3-2022, Part 3	Operation and Maintenance	www.standards.org.au
AS/NZS 2885.4-2016, Part 4	Submarine Pipeline System	www.standards.govt.nz
AS 2885.5-2020, Part 5	Field Pressure Testing	www.standards.org.au
AS/NZS 2885.6-2018, Part 6	Pipeline Safety Management	www.standards.govt.nz
ASME B31.1-2022	Power Piping	www.asme.org
ASME B31.3-2022	Process Piping	www.asme.org
ASME B31.4-2022	Pipeline Transportation Systems for Liquids and Slurries	www.asme.org
ASME B31.8-2022	Gas Transmission and Distribution System	www.asme.org

These standards are also available for inspection, at no charge, between the hours of 9.00am and 5.00pm from Monday to Friday (excluding statutory holidays) at WorkSafe New Zealand located at Level 6, 86 Customhouse Quay, Wellington 6011.

To view the material incorporated by reference, contact WorkSafe New Zealand using the following email regulatory.frameworks@worksafe.govt.nz.

Dated at Wellington this 30th day of August 2023.

PHIL PARKES, Chief Executive, WorkSafe New Zealand.