

Hazardous Substances Reforms – the Role of WorkSafe and the Environmental Protection Authority

	 Hazardous substance rules to PROTECT PEOPLE from WORKPLACE activities SET UNDER HSW ACT	 Hazardous substance DISPOSAL rules and rules to protect the ENVIRONMENT in WORKPLACES* SET UNDER HSNO ACT	 Hazardous substance rules at the IMPORTERS, MANUFACTURERS and SUPPLIERS SET UNDER HSNO ACT	 Hazardous substance rules to PROTECT PEOPLE and the ENVIRONMENT in NON-WORKPLACES SET UNDER HSNO ACT
Regulator	WORKSAFE	 Environmental Protection Authority Te Mana Rauhi Taiao	 Environmental Protection Authority Te Mana Rauhi Taiao	 Environmental Protection Authority Te Mana Rauhi Taiao
Enforced by	WORKSAFE	WORKSAFE	 Environmental Protection Authority Te Mana Rauhi Taiao	COUNCILS

* There are other hazardous substance environmental and disposal rules set under the Resource Management Act and local council bylaws. These rules are enforced by local, district and regional councils.

** Such as the classification framework, labelling, packaging, safety data sheets and restrictions on ingredients in certain hazardous substance products.

*** City and district councils.