

The Fletcher Construction Company: Enforceable Undertaking Variation 1

Date Accepted: 31 October 2019

	Agreed Activities	Proposed Activities
Victim Amends	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> $53,660 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No Change
Benefits to Workers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Develop a new temporary works procedure - $12,000 Develop temporary works visual aids - $10,000 Train workers in new temporary works procedure Provide dedicated training for those who are responsible for co-ordinating temporary works on the site Arrange for external consultant to audit the use of the temporary works procedure to verify ongoing effectiveness - $27,000 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No Change
Benefits to Industry	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Fletcher and Site Safe will work together to introduce into existing Site Safe programmes (where it is agreed to be the most suitable) a section that deals with the risks associated with working on and around temporary works, including dewatering - $10,000 Presentation to Civil Contractors New Zealand ('CCNZ') conference - $2500 Donation to the New Zealand Institute of Safety Management - $10,000 Establish a health and safety forum with labour hire companies - $45,000 Publish an article about health and safety and temporary works in an industry publication. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> VARIATION: Fletcher and Site safe will work together to raise awareness of Site Safe learners towards temporary works risk management in accordance with industry recognised good practice: $10000 to develop a poster campaign and prints of the TWF Good Practice Guideline Other activities: No Change
Benefits to Community	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Develop health and safety module for Mahurangi College - $10,000 Provide work experience for Mahurangi College student - $5000 Community open day - $5000 Donation for school safety equipment - $3000 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No Change
Cost	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The variation is cost neutral 	