

Requirements for mining and quarrying certificates of competence

Consultation on proposed amendment safe work instrument

Submissions close 5pm on Friday 15 November 2024

We welcome your feedback on this proposed amendment safe work instrument which makes changes to the requirements for 20 certificates of competence (CoCs). Please use this form to provide your submission. Once you have filled in this form, please send it to:

Email: regulatory.frameworks@worksafe.govt.nz or

Post: SWI Consultation, Regulatory Frameworks Team, WorkSafe New Zealand, PO Box 165, Wellington 6140

Your details

We ask for your name and contact details in case we need to get in touch with you or your organisation to clarify any aspect of your feedback and/or consult with you further.

Name:

Organisation: (if submitting on behalf of an organisation)

Position/title: (if submitting on behalf of an organisation)

Postal address:

Mobile phone:

Email:

Your feedback

Please add any general comments about the proposed safe work instrument:

Please add any comments about the new unit standards we are proposing to add for the specified CoC schedules 1-8:

Your submission may be made public

The Official Information Act 1982 (OIA) allows New Zealand citizens and permanent residents, or anyone in New Zealand, to request official information from the government. This includes copies of submissions.

WorkSafe will let you know if we receive an OIA request for a copy of your submission. The content of your submission may be made available to the public, though you can indicate below that you would prefer your personal information to be kept confidential. WorkSafe will manage any personal information you supply in accordance with the Privacy Act 2020.

Click/tick this box if you would prefer WorkSafe to keep your personal information confidential.

Requirements for mining and quarrying certificates of competence

Please add any comments about the new unit standards we are proposing to add for the specified CoC schedules 9-16:

Please add any comments about the removal of unit standard '19522: undertake job safety analysis':

Please add any comments about the new unit standards we are proposing to add for the specified CoC schedules 17-22:

Thank you for taking part in this consultation.